

Mark Visit of Deputy

Last night's meeting of Trio Rebekah Lodge held in California Hall on Pacific Coast highway, marked the official visit of district deputy, Mrs. Catherine Spruill. Hostess for the occasion was Mrs. Mary Smith.

A decision was reached at the previous meeting to continue sessions in California hall, although plans had been under way for a change of location. At this meeting, too, officers who had served during her six months' term were recipients of ceramic gifts from the retiring noble grand, Mrs. May IsBell.

Mrs. IsBell served as program chairman for the evening, which was featured by a Chinese theme in menu and appointments.

Mrs. Leondrus Stamps, committee chairman, announces a change of meeting time for committee members. Instead of the second Tuesday evening of every month, the new time will be the third Thursday, which brings the next meeting on October 19 at the home of Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, 718 Crenshaw boulevard. New member on the committee is Mrs. Loretta Baldwin, who will work with Miss Frances Smith on a public affairs program. Membership in the Y is always open. Volunteers are needed who can help by working on a committee and who can serve as program leaders. Persons interested should call Mrs. Stamps, committee member, or Mrs. Lukes at the Y office, Torrance 1556.

Persons who "might help if they knew more about it" are being offered that opportunity next week. There will be a YWCA workshop Friday, October 13, 9:30 a.m. till 2:00 p.m. at the San Pedro YWCA. Persons attending will take a covered dish for a pot luck lunch. A large number are expected to go from Torrance. Mrs. E. C. Spires, chairman of the program planning committee promises rich fare for newcomers and oldtimers in the "Y" alike.

Hilarious Program-Fetes Clubwomen At Rush Party

Torrance Woman's clubhouse was the setting for a delightful rush party Wednesday evening given to honor new members of Torrance Junior Woman's Club. Each member came dressed to represent a song, title and a lively guessing contest started the festivities. Highlighting the entertainment program arranged by Mrs. R. R. Dexter, were: "Madame Butterfly," sung by Mrs. William Stier; "Twilight on the Hill," a piano solo by Mrs. T. M. Saine, and a humorous skit, a farce on selecting committees, presented by Mesdames Joel R. Klink Jr., R. E. Tuttle, W. C. Boswell Jr., W. B. Levy and H. P. Jensen. Mrs. R. R. Dexter was assisted in planning the entertainment by Mrs. Regis C. Jones and Mrs. T. M. Saine. Appropriate decorations were completed by Mesdames Burton L. Easley, J. A. Barrington and R. A. Hoag.

Miss Webb Becomes Lovely Bride of James L. Cloward

In a beautifully impressive Sunday afternoon ceremony performed in First Baptist Church Miss Wanda Marie Webb became the bride of James L. Cloward, Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Giles of 1027 Arlington avenue and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Verdis Cloward of 1847 W. 223rd street.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white lace ballerina dress fashioned with boat neck and long sleeves with lace covered buttons used as bodice trimmings. Her bouquet was of shredded white carnations surrounding a detachable white orchid corsage.

Mrs. George Webb (Virginia Keller) sister-in-law of the bride attended her as matron of honor. Her ballerina-length gown was of sand beige taffeta and she carried baby orchids. Monty Cloward served his brother as best man and George Webb, brother of the bride, ushered.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, where the large living room was decorated with all white blossoms. A four tiered wedding cake encircled with gladiolus blossoms and fern was flanked with white candles. Mrs. Jo Bowman served the cake and pouring punch was Miss Elisa Mata. Mrs. Giles received in a light grey suit with red accessories and Mrs. Cloward wore aqua with brown accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of baby orchids.

Registering guests were Mrs. Valorie Benfield. Mr. and Mrs. Cloward are at home at 1103 1/2 Arlington avenue.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in June '50, and her husband, a Columbia Steel employee, served with the Army for two years, spending 15 months in Tokyo. He received his military diploma with the class of 1950.
